THE STEPIN-STEPUP-STEPOUT PROGRAM

WE are looking for families to step in to the projects step up to the task of credit repair, and job training, step out into becoming a homeowner.

This program is designed to help stimulate families with a plan that will enable them to become gainfully employed, and homeowners.

This is a community collaboration designed to create a sound structure with in the families. Within 3-5 years thru job training, and credit repair, they can become a homeowner, with a job

THE PLAYERS:

The Lemoyne Center . . . the community center that will operate as the hub, connecting all involved in the program.

The Washington-Green County Job Training Agency Inc. . . . Workforce Development Staff, Operator of Welfare training, work Certified Academy

Redevelopment . . . several programs that will help you become a new construction home owner as well as buyer assistance programs.

Community Action Southwest . . . help with credit repair to give financial stability.

Washington Federal Savings and Loan . . . will become prepared to be able to apply for a loan to becoming a homeowner.

Housing Authority . . . will provide the 4 units, and help screen the families.

Southwest Training Services Inc. . . . Employment training dollars

Habitat for Humanity . . . a program to elevate poverty housing

What is the Purpose of the Program?

- 1. To change the mind set of the community by showing that they do not have to remain in public housing.
- 2. To help establish the family structure by getting the adults ready to embark upon a career.
- 3. Have the participants work on the task of getting their credit repaired and to further gain knowledge about their finances.
- 4. To get more home owners in Washington County which will help with the tax base.
- 5. Start with a diverse group of new families.

What is the outcome we can expect once they exit the program or while they are in the program?

- 1. Anger will diminish from the parents and the children.
- 2. We can expect to see students performing better in and out of school.
- 3. Single female head of household self esteem will increase. Hopefully this will stop them from wanting to house the drug dealers.
- 4. Help the participants get and maintain a bank checking account to promote confidence about their finances.
